Easter: Celebrating the Heart of Our Faith with Joy

In my last Kirk News article, I wrote about Christmas. For many Christians, Christmas is the season that overflows with celebration. Churches are decorated, carols fill the air, and families gather for special services such Christmas Eve Christingle and Watchnight Services. Easter, by contrast, sometimes arrives more quietly. Generally, it is observed with more reverence, gratitude, and reflection, but not always with the same visible excitement or even joy. Yet Easter is not simply another date on the church calendar or season to be marked. It is the very heart of the Christian faith, and it deserves to be approached with at least the same joy and celebration as Christmas, if not more.

Christmas celebrates the incarnation: God stepping into human history in the person of Jesus Christ. This is a miracle worth endless praise. But Easter celebrates the victory that makes Christmas meaningful. Without the resurrection, Christ's birth would be a beautiful story without saving power. The empty tomb proclaims that sin has been defeated, death has been overcome, and new life is available to all who believe.

The apostle Paul makes this clear when he writes, "But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man" (1 Corinthians 15:20–21). Easter is not only about what happened to Jesus, it is about what is now possible for us. Because He lives, we have hope that extends beyond the grave.

Part of the reason Easter can feel less celebratory is that it is preceded by the weight of Holy Week. We walk with Jesus through betrayal, suffering, and the cross. This solemn journey is important; it reminds us of the cost of our reconciliation with God. But the story does not end on Friday. Sunday morning changes everything. The angel's words to the women at the tomb still echo today: "He is not here; He has risen!" (Luke 24:6). Those words are not whispered, they are proclaimed.

EASTER

Easter invites Christians into a joy that is bold and confident, not sentimental or temporary. It is a joy rooted in victory. It tells us that evil does not, and will not, have the final word, and that God's promises can be trusted even when circumstances seem hopeless. This is a joy worth celebrating openly and wholeheartedly.

As the church, we should allow Easter to shape our worship, our conversations, and our daily lives just as much as Christmas does. My hope, at Blackhall St Columba's, is that we can increase our celebration of Easter to match that of Christmas. We can celebrate with music, with gatherings, with generosity, and with testimony. Ultimately, it is about sharing the good news that Jesus rose again for all. As importantly, we can live as resurrection people: forgiving as we have been forgiven, loving sacrificially, and walking in hope.

When we celebrate Easter with joy, we bear witness to the world that our faith is not centred on a distant memory, but on a present reality, a living Savior. Christmas tells us that God became one of us. Easter tells us that, through Jesus, God conquered death. Both of these things are worth celebrating, however, it is Easter that reminds us that the story is not over but is as relevant today as it was over 2,000 years ago. Because of that, a joyful celebration is always justified.

God bless all, Fergus

Prayer Circle

Do you know someone in need of prayer? A friend or relative perhaps who is unwell, grieving or find themselves in a position where they don't know where to turn?

Blackhall St Columba's Prayer Circle is a small team of people who will pray frequently for anyone in need of help in complete confidence. We are also happy to accept prayer requests giving thanks for a happy event or asking for God's help with any forthcoming personal endeavour or challenge. Please contact Prayer Circle Secretary Betty Watt at lbthwatt@yahoo.co.uk or Fergus Cook at Fcook@churchofscotland.org.uk or 0131 466 7503. # Church Flower Donation Appeal

We Need your Help!

The Flowers in Church are funded by donations, and these have been falling. The flower funds are now extremely low.

We should like to be able to continue to provide Flowers and then donate them to people who may need some care or to celebrate a special occasion.

If you would like to donate, please get in touch with Lyndy Paton, Moira Laing, or Alison Hewat. All donations would be gratefully received.

If you want to donate flowers on a particular Sunday in the year, or the Sunday closest to a special date, please let us know. Some of our Donors already do this.

Sunday flower arrangement

This picture shows two Brass Vases which were donated to the Church in 1924 by the Woman's Guild.

They have only recently come to light. They are typical church vases of the period but unfortunately one of them is leaking. They have been taken to a Brass Worker in the Borders to have them repaired. There is an old weld on the leaking vase. (That is why the bases are covered in clingfilm in the picture.)

Brass flower vases

When they come back to us, they can be used like this by anybody who would like to arrange their own flowers. The two vases can hold enough flowers to give to three people.

The Junior Singers

This has been another busy Christmas season for the Junior Singers. In the month of December, they sang for the residents of Strachan House and for those in Queen's Court as well as singing during the Gift Service and Christingle Service. The major event, however, was taking part in the evening of Sunday 22nd of December with the Senior Choir, Praise Group and Praise Band in the performance of "Joy".

After all that the choir deserved a well-earned rest - but they will have to wait until after their next outing! We have received an invite from the Edinburgh Highland Reel and Strathspey Society to sing during their annual concert in the Queen's Hall on the 1st of February. This is very exciting for the choir and will be quite an experience for them. Four of our girls who moved on to secondary school this year (our Senior Singers) are joining us for the occasion so we are billed as the Blackhall St Columba's Singers in the programme.

JOY! at Blackhall St Columba's

JOY! by Joel Raney performed at Blackhall St Columba's

This Advent season we did something a bit different. The choir has historically led the church in a form of nine Lessons and Carols, on the Sunday evening before Christmas. However, over the last 2 years we have had another group of singers who occasionally lead the singing from the front of the church along with our small band of musicians. In September, we found a musical which offered a modern take on that timeless format and so we started by bringing the praise singers, praise band and the choir together to practise the songs in the JOY! musical. Simultaneously, Amy Donaldson and Marge Whiteside started preparing the Junior Singers to sing some of the songs.

After much effort from all three groups and the band, an audience of about 200 enjoyed a performance of Joy! a musical retelling the Christmas story from prophecy to the Wise Men, highlighting the excitement and wonder of Jesus' birth.

My thanks to all who worked so hard in preparing for this event and to the AV team who made the whole thing available not only to those present but to those watching on-line.

Readings for Lent - Bible Exploration Course

The Easter Story and Bible Exploration Series

Want to explore how you can apply the Bible to your daily life?

Join The Bible Course
New Edition
biblesociety.org.uk/thebiblecourse

All welcome to join the course at Blackhall St Columba's
every Sunday 6 - 7pm
8th February - 29th March

Course introduction

Each year, as we approach Easter, we try to have some material available that helps focus on the Easter Story. However, for many who are not church goers, this can be of little interest.

This Year's Resource Bible Society Video Series

This year the Bible Society has produced a series of 8 excellent videos presented by Dr Andrew Ollerton. The aim of the series is to introduce the Bible as a story from Genesis to Revelation and help understand how the whole thing ties together. If you have ever wondered why the Old and New Testaments appear to show very different faces of God then this course is for you. If you ever wondered if the 10 Commandments still apply or why Jesus came to the world when he did, then all this is answered in this course.

Readings for Lent - Bible Exploration Course

Course Format and Presentation

The format is going to be we meet on Sunday evening (starting 8th February) from 6-7pm, watch the video for the day and discuss or question or disagree with what was said. There are no "wrong" questions and we will all explore this book and the message it contains since it has had such an impact on the world for over 2000 years. There are daily Bible readings to help see how the book itself hangs together and these will be made available every week for those who want to follow along but that is not a condition for attendance and everyone will be welcome on the 8 Sundays before Easter.

Who is it for?

We trust this will make an interesting opening for some who have never seriously looked at the Bible but also a refresher for those of us who have read parts of the Bible but struggle to see the overall picture it presents.

We will meet on Sunday evenings from 6-7pm (starting 8th February) to watch a video, discuss, and ask questions about the book, with an open atmosphere—no questions are off-limits. Over eight weeks leading to Easter, we'll explore why this book has been significant for over 2000 years. Optional daily Bible readings will be provided, but participation is open to all, with no requirements.

This series welcomes those new to the Bible as well as those seeking a clearer understanding of its overall message.

Burns Supper 2026

The Company at the Blackhall St Columba's Burn Supper 2026.

On Saturday the 24th of January, around ninety people gathered in the large hall to celebrate Scotland's National Bard Rabbie Burns. Our Burns Supper featured a host of talent. The catering was supervised expertly by Lynn Bunney whose team provided a delicious three course meal. Matilda Lomas and her Ranger Guides undertook the waitressing duties most efficiently. The centre piece, of course, was the haggis which was piped in by Lochie Scott and addressed by Hamish Mair. The Selkirk Gace, with some embellishment, was given by Fergus Cook.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening, and the moving spirit behind the event, was Sandy Weir who kept the evening flowing well. The toast to the Immortal Memory was proposed by Eddie Thorn who gave an amusing and erudite summary of the Bard's life. The Lassies were toasted by Alan Hunter in expert fashion and the reply made by Shona Cook was equally impressive. The music of Burns and other Scots favourites was provided by Johnny Collington who sang and played the guitar, with the assembled company joining in enthusiastically. There was a good atmosphere of conviviality and fellowship with Auld Lang Syne concluding a successful evening.

The proceeds of the evening will benefit the Church Flower Team, Alzheimer's Scotland (in lieu of payment to our entertainer Johnny Collington) and to the general fund of the church to upgrade the audio-visual technology.

The Gift Service

Christmas Gift Service Donations

Colin O'Flaherty thanked the congregation for their 2025 Gift Service donations, which were sent to Edinburgh Prison Gift Collection for Christmas distribution to prisoners' children. Here is his letter of thanks.

Toys donated at the Gift Service 2025

Dearest Friends,

I hope all of you had a lovely Christmas and New Year.

Thank you so much for your support for the fortieth Christmas gift collection.

Number of children who received gifts: -

Two hundred and forty-seven children received Christmas presents. Over a hundred of these children received some of their Christmas presents at one of the six Christmas parties that took place in the Visitor's Room. These were organised by the family contact officers and Barnardo's at the Visitor's Centre. The Visitor's Centre has kept any leftover gifts, which will be distributed over the year so that more children can benefit.

We met our goal: ensuring every child visiting the prison centre receives a Christmas gift each year.

Here is a note from Patrizia from the Visitor's Centre.

"We gave extra presents to the families that were more in need, as we did in previous years. Also, several families were unable to visit before Christmas, so we are still donating presents to children. Thank you so much to everyone who donated the gifts for the children. All the children were "over the moon" with the presents received."

Thank you again for your support.

Best Wishes

Colin

The WaTch Committee

Edinburgh
Children's Hospital Charity

Our chosen charity for 2025, the Edinburgh Children's Hospital Charity, benefited from a successful coin collection in July and August, a Craft Coffee morning in Autumn, and the Christmas Fair, along with a generous donation from the Country Dancers after their afternoon tea dance. We were pleased to present Pippa Johnston, representing ECHC, with a cheque for £14,300 at the morning service on January 18th of 2026.

I had the pleasure of touring the Children's Hospital and seeing the dedicated staff and volunteers in action and it was truly uplifting; despite being busy, the hospital maintains a calming atmosphere for the children.

A massive thank you to the congregation, stall holders, coffee and tea team, bakers, crafters, Santa, and the Blackhall community for making this all possible.

The Knitted Bible

We are very excited to be hosting the Knitted Bible in the sanctuary from Friday 13th March until Friday 20th March 2026 and hope that you will come along to see it and bring your family and friends. It was originally created in 2008 by the congregation of St. George's United Reformed Church in Hartlepool, Teeside. It started as a single scene depicting The Last Supper and grew and grew into a full-scale exhibition involving members of the congregation and friends from other churches who knitted, sewed and built this amazing display.

The Knitted Bible consists of over 30 separate scenes from the Bible from the creation story in Genesis to the Last Supper and the Resurrection by way of many of the best known characters of the Bible such as Adam and Eve, Noah, Joseph, Moses and David and Goliath and including, of course, Jesus and the many miracles He performed. The craftsmanship and detail are amazing. A reviewer from the Guardian wrote an article about visiting it and concluded by saying, "See it if you can; I went twice. I am neither Christian nor a crafter, but you would have to have a heart of stone (unlike the boulder in scene 32, the Resurrection, neatly knitted in grey wool) not to be moved by this endearing and intricate labour of love."

In addition to being able to see for yourself this unique exhibition, we will be providing refreshments for all and a variety of activities for our younger guests. The display will be able to be viewed each weekday (except for Tuesday and Thursday when it will be available only in the afternoon and evening sessions) from 10am to 12.30pm, 1.30-4pm and 6-9pm. On Saturday 14th March, it can be seen from 10am- 1pm and 2-5pm and, on Sunday 15th, it can be seen from 2-5pm. (On Friday 20th, only the morning slot will be available). It will take over an hour to see all the tableaux.

Quizzes, crafts, and musical accompaniment will be offered on Saturday. The event is free, but donations are welcome and will benefit St. George's United Reformed Church and our Building for the Future Fund.

We encourage everyone to see the Knitted Bible display and hope both local and distant visitors attend. To ensure a successful event, we need volunteers for the tearoom and as stewards. If you'd like to help, please contact Shona Cook (07981 970054).

MISS 25%

An annual tax reclaim under Gift Aid was made recently providing a very welcome and essential, £33,152.88 boost to the kirk's general funds. This was provided by kind, banked donations of £124,444 and £8,000, the maximum allowed, for small cash donations in the collecting plate etc. Plus, interest of £42 from the taxman as well would you believe!

A great thank you to ALL who give to the church but if you pay tax, including capital gains tax, you can sign a simple Kirk document which enables us to claim back the tax you've paid on your giving. For example: - you earn £100, pay tax at your personal rate but, with 20% always the rate applied solely for the scheme, £20 is deducted leaving £80. Let's say, you then give the £80 to the church who then claim the tax you have paid and so the Church gets back the £20 which is, of course 25% of the £80 donated.

So, this 25% has, does and will keep St Columba's going. However, over the years the amount we have been able to claim has not kept up with inflation and so it's important that everybody reviews their giving at least annually. Please Gift Aid if possible and let's not miss 25% as a return on our giving.

Another Miss 25% we are delighted to introduce is Miss Susan Scrimgeour, our new Gift Aid Convenor as I, Sandy Weir, bow out of that role but remain on the Finance team with her. Susan is very capable and happy to answer any queries about giving that you may have with everything kept, as always, in strictest confidence. Let her know if you want to sign up to Gift Aid if you have not done so before or, just as importantly, you already have but have since stopped paying tax.

Susan's contact details are: - Email sscrimgeour@hotmail.com

Just One Thing

JUST ONE THING - To increase participation in donations to Ferryhill Primary Sharing Shelf, the Kirk Session would like to introduce a new initiative for 2026. There are a lot of hungry people just a short walk from our doors, and sharing shelves can make a big difference.

Since 2024 Blackhall St. Columba's Church has been supporting the Ferryhill Primary School "Sharing Shelf" to stop children coming to school hungry. A number of members have been very supportive and thank you for that. A "Sharing Shelf" works on the basis parents are allowed to take up to six items and the school can access the shelf for its "Breakfast Club" if required. It is not just breakfast items needed for donated items, as you will see from the list below, all items donated are supporting low-income families very near to us and we all are aware hungry children do not do well in learning.

The closure of the Pennywell Pantry has significantly affected Ferryhill families, and the Kirk Session encourages everyone to bring one listed item each Sunday to make a meaningful difference.

We are grateful for the support of all who have donated food. Some people bring food regularly; some bring it occasionally. If everybody brought "Just One Thing", collectively we could make a big difference. Of course, not everyone will be able to do this and if you're currently bringing more than one item, that's great, please continue to do so. The sharing shelf fully depends on donations as it does not receive any council or external funding.

Please bring one item to donate at church on Sunday. Needed items include cereals, biscuits, tinned foods (beans, meat, spaghetti, fruit, rice pudding, soup, vegetables), pasta, rice, sauces, jam, chocolate spread, instant meals, tea, coffee, sugar. Non-food items: toothpaste, deodorant, shampoo.

Thank you for your support.

Michael Cockburn

Dates for Your Diary January - April 2026

On Saturday 24th of January, our Burns' Supper took place in the large hall and it was a huge success. If you missed out this year, then put it in your diary now for next year and book early through Sandy Weir.

Sunday 8th February: Movies@St.Columba's- "The Love Punch" (Certificate 12)

With Valentine's Day just around the corner, why not head along to the church sanctuary at 2.30pm for a touch of hilarious romance courtesy of Emma Thompson and Pierce Brosnan? They play ex-spouses who reunite rather grudgingly to hatch a plan to seize a $10 million diamond from an unscrupulous French financier at his upcoming wedding after he has stolen their pension pot. They are helped by best friends, Celia Imrie and Timothy Spall, and the result is feel-good and hysterical.

There is no charge for this event and no tickets are required but donations towards the refreshments and treats will be gratefully received.

Sunday 1st March: Sunday Lunch at the Toby Carvery

We have booked lunch at the Lauriston Toby at 1pm at a cost of £15.79. If you would like to come along, enjoy a delicious lunch and spend time with friends old and new, contact Barbara Duguid on baduguid@gmail.com (07773 884556) or Libby Cameron on libbyd21@hotmail.co.uk (07889 676418).

A deposit of £10 is required by 15th February. Note, places are limited- so don't delay.

Outreach Events

Friday 13th - Friday 20th March: The Knitted Bible (see website and posters for specific times throughout the day and week)

The Knitted Bible was created by St. George's United Reformed Church in Hartlepool and consists of over 30 knitted scenes from the Bible. It is quite an amazing achievement. This is the first time a Church of Scotland has hosted this fantastic display and you cannot miss it! It will be available to view each weekday morning (excluding the Tuesday and Thursday), afternoon and evening and at selected times on Saturday and Sunday. There will be refreshments served and activities for kids as well. No tickets are required and there is no charge for this event but donations will be gratefully received.

Saturday 21st March: Music at St. Columba's - The Amazing Life Gospel Choir.

Please join us in the sanctuary at 7pm for the choir whose members come from all over Scotland and are led by Angela McKenzie, a very lively and entertaining pianist. This concert will set feet tapping and bring back a few memories with some golden oldies. Come along and bring a friend. Refreshments will be served and, while there is no charge for the event and no tickets are required, but donations will be gratefully received.

Sunday 26th April: Murder Mystery High Tea

Please join us in the large hall at 4.30pm for an evening of murder, mystery and intrigue with fish and chips and fellowship thrown in. We welcome back our friends from 'Can you catch the Killer?' who will entertain us, test our detective skills and have us laughing along with them. Refreshments in the form of a high tea (fish and chips from the Corbie) will be provided. Tickets must be purchased and cost £25.00 each. Places are limited and it is essential to book your spot as soon as possible. ## Remembering Elma Scott

Elma was born on the 22nd of October 1933 in Edinburgh. She was baptised Elizabeth Margaret but has always been known as Elma. The first 2 letters of Elizabeth and of Margaret. She was baptised in Old Parish Church Corstorphine where she grew up. She had a very happy childhood.

She initially attended Corstorphine Primary then Queen Street School which was renamed Mary Erskine School in 1944. On leaving school Elma decided to go into Nursing and trained at the Princess Margaret Rose Hospital part of the Royal Infirmary Edinburgh. On completing her training, she went on to do her Midwifery at the Western General Hospital where she stayed for most of her working life apart from 4 years at the Simpsons Memorial Maternity Pavilion and a secondment to the then National Board as the Professional Advisor for Midwifery. By the time she retired in 1992 she was the Senior Midwifery Tutor at North Lothian College of Nursing and Midwifery

Elma enjoyed her work and always said it was a privilege to care for Mothers and babies and then to teach others to become midwives. She had had an early wish to work as a Missionary but following her mother's death she decided to stay at home and look after her father. However, she was happy to know she had trained others to do this important work and enjoyed hearing from former students in Africa, India and Nepal.

Church has always played a big part in her life and her faith was very important to her. She joined Corstorphine Church where she taught in the Sunday school. On moving to Blackhall in 1960 she joined St Columba's where she was to stay for the rest of her life. Initially she taught in the Sunday School and felt privileged to be ordained to the Eldership in 1974. She was appointed Presbytery elder in 1981. In 1997 she was appointed Session Clerk the first female to hold this role in St Columba's. She was a great support to Alex Douglas and always put the Congregation first during her 6 years in the role.

Eulogy to Elma Scott

Even after standing down as Session Clerk, she still regularly helped in the Church office and was always there to support and give advice to her successors, always in the strictest confidence

In her free time, she loved to read, do the Scotsman crossword daily and travel. It was really after her retirement that her extensive travelling started. Elma's close friend and work colleague Sheila retired in the same year and they started travelling with holidays in Japan, Hong Kong, Madrid, Tenerife, the Passion Play in Oberammergau and New Year celebrations in Bruges, even a wine tasting trip in California and many more. One of the shortest trips Sheila and Elma did regularly, in fact every Saturday, was to Mimi's in Comely Bank for a bowl of soup and a coffee. Like a lot of restaurants around Edinburgh that she frequented over the years, I am sure the staff will miss that smile and a genuine interest in how they are today.

Elma has always been a very organised person so it came as no surprise that following her death we discovered she had detailed her wishes for her funeral. Nicola her lawyer read to me the note Elma had given her that the service was to be here at Warriston Crematorium which it was. The service was to be taken by the Minister of St Columba's which Fergus did but there was to be no flowers but if there must be flowers, they had to come from Banks of Stockbridge and I can assure you they were.

When Elma was admitted to hospital five weeks ago, she wasn't on any medication besides eyedrops, and the hospital had no record of her—perhaps due to her daily Sherry or her single status. In her note, she wrote: "Through the Church I have made many good friends, but also from school and work, all of whom enriched my life." I hope she knew how much she enriched ours.

Scottish Country Dancing

Thanks to so many responding to the invitation in the November Kirk News, the hall was filled for our St Andrew's themed Tea Dance. With Amy's ceilidh band, Quern, giving their time to play for us; and with generous contributions of food from local stores - especially from William at the Craigcrook Deli in the Dip - complementing the home baking provided by the dancers; we were able to raise over £400 from ticket sales. A table laden with raffle prizes resulted in another £200 plus; and a contribution from the class enabled us to donate £800 to the Edinburgh Children's Hospital Charity, to add to the funds raised by the church since the summer.

Church photographer, James Burr, took a fine selection of pictures in the first part of the programme and these can be seen on the church website. I hope the few I have shared below give a wee taste of what was, for everyone concerned, a memorable afternoon.

After our annual Christmas party, with live music from Matthew McLennan and gifts distributed by "Santa" Cameron, we had a short break, before starting back mid-January. It was good to welcome a couple of new dancers from the local area and we look forward to getting to know them this term.

Still room for YOU to join us though. You'd be made very welcome in the large hall any Thursday at 7pm.

Blackhall Book Club

The book club here at Blackhall St. Columba's started up during Covid when we met on Zoom! Now we meet in the sanctuary and it has grown and grown with over thirty members currently. (Not everyone comes to every meeting!) If you enjoy reading, are willing to try a book you might not chose yourself and think you would like a chance to discuss the book with others while enjoying a cuppa, then you might like to join us.

We are a very relaxed, informal group which meets every six weeks or so in the church on an evening which we chose collectively and which can vary from one meeting to another. There is no obligation to come to every meeting and, although finishing the book is preferable, it is not essential .....come along for the chat after our discussion and enjoy the home-baking! If you would like more information, contact Shona Cook on 07981 970054.

Tuesday Topics

It's possibly a bit late but can I start by wishing all our members a very Happy New Year? I'm glad to see the days getting a little longer. We had a very sociable lunch out at Howies on the 6th of January which I think everyone enjoyed and we are now waiting to hear about 'Therapets' on the 27th of January. Anne Clark is coming to talk to us and we hope she may bring one with her.

Then on 24th February we are having another visit from Edinburgh Zoo. We have had two wonderful talks from them about Giraffes and the Wild Cats so this time we are going to hear about the Chimps from the Budongo Trail. Those of you who came to the first meeting will remember David Hughson who talked so eloquently about the Edinburgh Poor House. His wife, Odile, is coming on the 24th of March to talk to us about 'The Auld Alliance'. Odile is French so it promises to be a very interesting evening. Again, about History, we have the 'Lost Treasures of Scotland' with Kath Hay. She spoke to us last year about St Kilda so you know we are in for a good evening on 28th March Tuesday Topics meets on the last Tuesday of the month in the small hall for talks, entertainment and fellowship....and a cup of coffee or tea and chat. Membership is £20 or just £3 for an occasional meeting. All are welcome.

Any queries to Lyndy Paton 07460212174 or Sheila MacIntosh 0131 336 1537.

Nativity Trail 2025

On the 18th and 19th of December Blackhall held the Nativity Trail.

Through a series of tableaus, the Christmas Story was acted out by a huge cast of talented performers drawn from our congregation. From the archangel Gabriel to King Herod, the shepherds and wise men the trail concluded with the nativity scene in Bethlehem. The true meaning of Christmas was explained and brought to life through the narrative, costumes and detailed sets.

In addition, craft activities, an escape room and refreshments were offered and all free of charge! Our visitors included several hundred people from the congregation, the wider community and the primary sevens from Blackhall and Ferryhill Primary Schools. All the participants from the congregation are to be congratulated on another successful event.
